Comments: My only critique would be in the category of personal application. Unlike an academic paper where I am primarily concerned with research, I really am interested in how this doctrine has been experienced in a local church context. Have you experienced and push-back on the teaching? Have you personally experienced healing or been part of someone's healing journey?
The Church	Grade: 45/52
Comments: When thinking about your upcoming interview, make sure you reflect on how you have experienced your understanding of the purpose of the church at a local level. This was missing from your paper. As you pastor in 2022, are you experiencing push-back in the missional nature of the church? Are people asking you questions about the future of the church in Canadian culture? These are questions that will take your research from pragmatic to application.
