Papers
The Scriptures	Grade: 44/52
Comments: The second part focused on interpretation and hermeneutics but was a little weaker as it presented only the position of NT Wright and there was no definition of terms, such as "story" or "critical-realist" hermeneutic and how that differs from the "historical-critical" method of interpretation.
The Holy Spirit	Grade: 48/52
Comments: One thing to consider...as you ponder this doctrine, how does it play out in your ministry at CA Church? Do you receive any push-back or do you find common misconceptions, etc.?
Divine Healing	Grade: 45/52
Comments: Although the paper did an excellent job of unpacking a rich understanding of the historical views of the Atonement, it felt a little short on actually engaging specifically with Divine Healing in the Atonement.
The Church	Grade: 36/52
Comments: Would be good to have more applications to his church ministry.
